TO KILL FIVE MEN.

So Testifies Andrew White in the Hargis Case at Lexington.

Lexington, Ky., March 24.—Dr. Cox, Jim Cockrill, Attorneys Vaughan and Marcum were to be shot by Anderson White, at the court house during the trial of Tom Cockrill for killing Ben Hargis, in obedience to orders by James Hargis, according to a sensational story told to-day by White in the hearing on the motion for bail for the Hargises and Callahan. Anderson White is the brother of Tom White, who is under life sentence for the murder of J. B. Marcum.

White said that prior to the killing of Cockrill James Hargis took him to the Hargis store, and gave him a 45-calibre pistol, and told him he wanted him to return to the court house, where the trial for the killing of Ben Hargis was in progress, and be ready to do as Judge Hargis told him. He declared that Hargis wanted him to shoot five men, White being ordered to shoot in the event trouble started. The men he was to shoot were Dr. Cox, Jim Cockrill, Mark Cockrill, Attorney Vaughan and another, the witness recalled to be Marcum.

"Kill any of these five men, or any damned one of them," is what White said Hargis told him to do. He said he declined to do this, and returned the pistol. Hargis told him then that he would be needed probably as a witness, and told him to return when sent for.

Jeff Smith followed White. He said that before the killing of Cockrill, Judge Hargis, in the latter's office declared to him: "Jim Cockrill has got to be killed, for if he is not, Cockrill will kill Callahan or me, or both of us."

Witness said that he declined to participate in a plot, and Hargis then said he would have to get George Smith or Curtis Jett to do it. Witness said that on the day after Cockrill was killed he was in Hargis' store. Callahan and Judge Hargis were there, and when the news came from Lexington that Cockrill had died in a hospital, they both smiled at each other. He said Hargis asked him only recently how he was going to testify in this case, but that he would not tell him.

Judge James Hargis testified in his own behalf in the application for bail, on the charge of complicity in the murder of James Cockrill. He denied all charges brought against him and said that he never conspired to take the life of any man. He was on the stand over three hours. The cross-examination of Alex Hargis was concluded and the testimony of Sheriff Callahan was begun. The defense expected to finish taking testimony yesterday.

F. M. RUSSELL,

Blackburn Man Named For Representative In Todd.

Elkton, Ky., March 21.—The Democratic primary in Todd county passed off quietly to-day. F. M. Russell, candidate for representative, won without opposition. On account of the great number of friends and relatives of Senator Blackburn in Todd county, Russell will vote for the return of the senior senator to the senate against anyone.

The other nominees were as follows: Sheriff, William Shelton; jailer, James Hill; assessor, Walter Chennault; county superintendent, A. S. Johnson; county judge, C. O. Duffy; county attorney, J. R. Mallory; county clerk, C. E. Gill.

STANDARD THE OIL COMPANY PAYS $100 FINE.

One Case Settled and Fifty More are Pending.

AWAITING TEST CASE.

Several Other Matters Disposed of in Circuit Court This Week.

Dave Cunningham, col., was tried on a charge of grand larceny Wednesday and a verdict of guilty was returned. He was given two years in the penitentiary. Cunningham was indicted for taking a sum of money from Hampton's grocery on Ninth street. On Tuesday he was tried on a charge of petit larceny, but the jury failed to agree and was discharged.

The case of Frank Stephens, charged with assault and battery, by agreement of parties, was submitted to the court without the intervention of a jury. It was adjudged by the court that the defendant be committed to the custody of the jailer and that he be worked on the streets or police roads of the county for a period of six months.

The Standard Oil Company was fined $100 on an indictment charging them with retailing oil from a wagon without a license. There are fifty bills against them and the others were continued, pending the decision of the Court of Appeals on a similar case carried up from Trigg. The Standard Oil Co. claims that the payment of the fine in one case should settle the whole business.

Hayden Hern, who was fined $100, settled his fine; but Jim Dawson, col., who was fined $100, for shooting Jim Lacy, col., failed to pay up and is in jail where he will probably serve one hundred days.

By agreement of parties concerned all the appearance common law cases set for this term have been continued to the June term. This was done on account of so much time having been consumed in disposing of the lengthy Commonwealth docket. The common law cases continued from the September term will be tried however. Five days will also be devoted to the hearing of Equity matters.

W. Lacy, where he will be laid up for some time. He is 59 years old and has a wife and four daughters. One of his daughters, Miss Minor Griffin, is Superintendent of Schools in Todd county.

WAREHOUSES ACCEPTING TOBACCO

On Hopkinsville Market at Prices Agreed Upon.

NO TROUBLE HERE.

Prizing Houses Are Busy Receiving the Weed to Be Prized.

Tobacco is coming in at a lively rate and the two prizing houses of W. H. Jesup & Co. and T. E. Elgin & Co. are getting busy. Probably 200,000 pounds have come in this week, including the big crops of E. D. Jones, Q. A. Elliott, Winston Henry, M. B. King, Draper Bros., Jesse Gee and others.

The warehouses are caring for the tobacco in hogsheads at the Association schedule of prices. As fast as it is prized it is being delivered to the warehousemen, who are co-operating with the prizing houses.

Mr. Chas. F. Jarrett has been tendered the position of Association salesman on the Hopkinsville market and has the matter of accepting under advisement.

SIX MINERS KILLED

Result of Explosion of Plant at Princeton, Ind.

Princeton, Ind., March 22.—Six miners dead and four injured, two probably fatally, is the result of an explosion in the mine of the Princeton Coal Mining Company this afternoon.

The dead: Hudson Weatherly, Edmund Geiser, Albert Geiser, Harry Taggart, William Biggs, Geo. Dill.

The seriously injured: John Dill, burned and will probably die; Wm. Jones, will probably die.

The cause of the disaster is unknown save that it resulted from a powder explosion. The miners were making their blasts previous to leaving the mine, and most of them had ascended.

While the body of Mrs. Anne E. Warner, who dropped dead at Cincinnati, was being prepared for burial, $4,900 in bonds and $151 in cash were found in the bustle she wore.

THIS EVENING WILL TELL THE BASEBALL TALE.

Last Effort Being Made To-day to Finance the Team.

SUCCESS ALMOST SURE.

About $800 of the $1,200 Asked for Has Been Subscribed.

The guarantee fund for the Hopkinsville Baseball Association has been added to this week until it is now only about $400 short of the amount asked for. The business men have responded in an encouraging manner, with a few exceptions, and it is now much more probable that the club will be in May 4 than it was a week ago. But there is still $400 to raise and the last $400 will be harder to get than the first $800. If you are a friend of the club, pitch in to-day and help finish the work.

The final meeting for organization will be held to-night, at which time all matters of doubt must be settled. If the money is in sight, all will be well. If the outlook is hopeless the directors will tell the public what to expect and the club will close its affairs. But we do not believe the people of Hopkinsville will let the club fail in its purpose, when so near to success. A little more hard work to-day and a pull altogether and the doubts will be removed.

GLOBE TELEPHONE CO.

May Sell Out to Cumberland at Cadiz.

There is a deal on foot whereby the Cumberland Telephone people may become the owners of the local exchange in Cadiz, says the Record. Mr. J. D. Russell, general manager of Cumberland at Hopkinsville, was in Cadiz Tuesday in conference with A. P. White, owner of the local 'phone, and Mr. White left Tuesday afternoon for Nashville where the deal will probably be closed. The recent fire destroyed the local exchange in Cadiz, and since that time the town has been without a telephone service.
